

Code of Conduct for Children and Young People

Barker Martial Arts Ltd is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Designated Safeguarding Lead Victoria Barker.

Sports clubs should offer a positive experience for children and young people and where they can learn new things in a safe and positive environment.

As a member of Barker Martial Arts Ltd, your child is expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

Children and young people are expected to:

- Be loyal and give their friends a second chance.
- Be friendly and particularly welcoming to new members.
